ARTICLE I

The name of this Association shall be: The Orange County Classroom Teachers Association, Inc. herein known as “the Union”. The Orange County Classroom Teachers Association, Inc., is the local affiliate of the Florida Education Association (FEA), the National Education Association (NEA), the American Federation of Teachers (AFT), and the Central Florida Labor Council AFL-CIO. The Association shall operate for the benefit of the members and for the support of the profession of teaching and the students we serve.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP

SECTION I - CLASSES

- A. Membership shall be open to all non-administrative and non-supervisory school employees who work in the Orange County Public Schools or schools that have been organized by OCCTA or its affiliates.

Teachers who are current in the payment of union dues are members in good standing.

Teacher is defined as any category included in the Bargaining Unit represented by the Union,

- B. Retired dues paying members of CTA-R shall be considered ex-officio members of Orange County Classroom Teachers Association with the rights and privileges granted to CTA-R in these Bylaws and in CTA Policies.
- C. Members on Long-Term Leave. A person who was an active member and has been granted an Orange County School Board approved leave of absence of one (1) semester or more, may, upon payment of dues, enjoy all the rights and benefits of active members.
- D. Associate Memberships. Non-administrative employees in the schools of Orange County who are not eligible for active membership in a local of the national affiliates may, upon payment of dues, enroll as associate members with all the rights and responsibilities of active members except the right to vote, to hold office, or to represent the Union. Associate members shall not be eligible for the Union's legal services program.

SECTION II: DUES ASSESSMENT

Members shall be assessed annual dues as determined by Article XI.

SECTION III: CENSURE/SUSPENSION/EXPULSION

After due notice and hearing, the Board of Directors, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, may censure, suspend or expel any member who shall have acted in a manner that violates the terms of the By-laws, and policies of the CTA, or has violated the Code of Ethics of the teaching profession, or may cancel the membership of any member convicted in a court of a crime involving moral turpitude, and may reinstate a member who has previously been suspended or expelled from the Union. Upon reinstatement, any censured, member or a member who has been suspended or expelled but reinstated shall be barred from seeking any CTA elective office for a period of three (3) years. Any censured, suspended or expelled member may appeal the action to the membership at a meeting called for that purpose and which has attained the required quorum. To overturn the action of the Board shall require a 2/3 majority vote at that membership meeting.

SECTION IV – ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP

- A. A member is in good standing upon payment of the required dues.
- B. A member who has a break in service and maintains payment of the required dues is in good standing.
- C. A member may remedy any unpaid dues in order to achieve good standing.

Active membership shall be continuous. Members who go off payroll with the school district for up to 50 working days or less shall retain local active membership upon prior written notice to the Union and continued payment of dues. If a question arises regarding the status of an active member due to changes in the law, the Board will hold in abeyance that Bylaw provision until a legal ruling is obtained.

SECTION V: MEMBERSHIP AFFILIATION:

All members of this Union shall be members of the Florida Education Association (FEA), the National Education Association (NEA), the American Federation of Teachers (AFT), and the Central Florida Labor Council AFL-CIO.

- i. (1) Director representing members teaching special education
- j. (2) Directors representing members at large

SECTION II: ELECTIONS

- A. Election Committee
 - 1. The Elections Committee shall conduct all general and special elections of the organization.

2. The Elections Committee shall consist of the Chairperson plus four (4) members in good standing selected by the Representative Assembly at its first meeting of the year.
3. Any member of the Elections Committee who accepts a nomination, other than as a convention delegate, must vacate his or her committee position immediately and will be replaced by a member nominated by the president and approved by the Board of Directors.

B. The Elections Committee shall:

1. Be responsible for determining the eligibility of candidates.
2. Direct the election procedures.
3. Tabulate and validate the election results.
4. Process election challenges and conduct an investigation when necessary. If an investigation is conducted, the committee shall issue a written report and either validate the election results, or order a new election.

C. Election Procedures:

1. Only members under Article II, Section I.A, of the Union shall be eligible to vote.
2. Election shall be determined by a candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast. If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast on the first ballot, the two candidates with the highest number of votes shall be placed on a run-off ballot.
3. In the event of a tie among candidates for a run-off election, a coin flip will be used to determine the final two candidates.
4. In the case of an officer or board election where there is only one nominee, the elections chair will declare that candidate elected.

SECTION III: NOMINATIONS

- A. Sixty (60) days prior to the date of the election, the Elections Committee shall notify all members of the opening of nominations for officers, the offices to be filled, the necessary qualifications for nomination and election to such offices, and of the date of the election by first class U.S. Mail to the members' last known home address.
- B. To be nominated for all offices other than Director, a candidate must submit to the Elections Committee a petition containing the signatures of twenty-five (25) members in good standing. Said petitions must be submitted no later than fourteen (14) days following the notice of the opening of nominations.
- C. To be nominated as a candidate for the office of Director, a candidate must submit to the Elections Committee a petition containing the signatures of twenty-five (25) members of that constituency. Said petitions must be submitted no later than fourteen (14) days following the notice of the opening of nominations.
- D. Nominees must be active, dues paying members in good standing.

SECTION IV: GENERAL ELECTIONS

- A. General Elections shall:
1. Be conducted by secret, individual ballot.
 2. At least fifteen (15) days prior to the election, the Election Committee shall notify all members of the election date and the candidates for offices.
 3. When a mail ballot election is used, the Elections Committee shall prepare and send ballots by U.S. Mail to all members in good standing for the preceding sixty (60) days, in such manner as to ensure the secrecy of the ballot, no later than ten (10) days following the close of nominations. The period between the mailing and return date for the ballots shall be no less than twenty (20) calendar days.
 4. The ballots shall be tabulated by the Elections Committee, and a majority of the ballots cast shall determine the outcome of the election. In the absence of a majority, the Elections Committee shall conduct a run-off election between the two candidates who have received the most votes for the office in question. When a mail ballot is used, the Elections Committee shall prepare and send ballots by first-class U.S. Mail to the last known home address of all members who were eligible to vote in the initial election, in such manner as to ensure the secrecy of the ballot. The period between the mailing and return date for the ballot shall be no less than twenty (20) calendar days.
 5. Challenges and objections to the election must be submitted in writing, with a statement of supporting reasons that includes specific facts as well as any documentation, to the Elections Committee within two (2) workdays of the count. The Elections Committee shall issue its written opinion regarding the objections no later than ten (10) days after receipt of such objections.
 6. The election results will be published and distributed to the membership within thirty (30) days of the count. All elections materials, including the ballots, will be kept in a secure location for one (1) year.
